ABSTACT

Performances of musical repertoire from various eras such as classical, modern, Malay and popular are wrapped into a solo viola performance using musical performance techniques that contain conventional rules. This performance consists of several repertoires from different eras. The first repertoire was the classical repertoire from the Baroque era created by a German composer named Georg Philipp Telemann with the title Concerto in G Major. The second repertoire, namely the modern repertoire entitled Nirmala, is one of the legendary works of Suhaimi Mohd Zain (1958–2018) who was a popular composer from Malaysia. The third repertoire, namely Love Of My Life, is a song created by Freddie Mercury, the vocalist of the legendary British rock band, Queen. The presenter applies playing techniques such as legato, staccato, slur, detache, arpeggio, double string, trill, and vibrato to create a perfect performance.
